WINES FOR DADS

At the end of 1974, Harry Chapin had a new number one hit: Cat's in the Cradle. This song depicts a busy father who keeps not making time for his son despite his child wanting to grow up to be just like him. Only in retirement, with nothing but time on his hands, does the father realize that after reaching out to his child, his son simply doesn't have enough spare moments to speak to his old man - making dad realize that his son really did grow up to be just like him. June 18th is Father's Day. Make the most of it.

Here are some wines to share with your father. These are all delicious wines. They're big, concentrated fruit which are just perfect for big steak and potatoes and other big juicy dinners. Take advantage of these sales.

Januik Merlot, Columbia Valley, Washington, 2018

Columbia Valley vineyards grow Merlot that gives Washington winemakers a reason to smile. With the grapes their wine-maker uses from the state's top vineyards, Januik consistently turns out Merlot with that WOW-factor that leaves wine drinkers smiling. A blend of 96% Merlot and 4% Cabernet Sauvignon which includes grapes from Klipsun, Ciel du Cheval, and Weinbau vineyards. Raspberry, vanilla and spice notes fill the glass. The finish is long and lush.

Retail $26.99 Sale $23.99

Chateau Franc Lartigue Merlot with a bit of Cabernet Sauvignon, Saint Emilion, Bordeaux, France, 2018

Chateau Franc Lartigue Saint-Emilion Grand Cru is made from 70% Merlot, 15%, Cabernet Franc, and 15% Cabernet Sauvignon. Eight-hectare property in the town of Saint-Emilion, this wine is elegant and structured. Bold and rich, this ripe black-currant-flavored wine comes from vineyards on the plain below Saint-Émilion center. With the rich Merlot dominant, the wine has density and concentration that will allow it to age.

Retail $44.99 Sale $38.99

Château Cantenac Brown, Grand Cru, Margaux, Bordeaux, France, 2019

The 2019 Cantenac Brown is a brilliant wine from José Sanfins and his team. Unwinding in the glass with deep aromas of wild berries, licorice, loamy soil, burning embers and violets, it's medium to full-bodied, seamless and layered, with terrific concentration, beautifully refined tannins and a seamless, elegant profile. Given its quality, this remains somewhat under the radar and is well worth a special effort to seek out.

94+ Points - Wine Advocate. Retail $82.99 Sale $69.99

Moillard, Bourgogne Pinot Noir, Hautes Côtes de Nuits, Les Vignes Hautes, Burgundy, France, 2017

Moillard produces wines of a rare fineness and elegance, well-structured and strong, offering a great ageing potential. Nice aromatics dominate feature with citrus fruit aromas and gourmet finish. Retail $21.99 Sale $18.99

Preludio de Sei Solo, Tempranillo Ribera del Duero, Spain, 2018

Fruit-of-the-wood and charcuterie aromas lead the way for flavors of blackberry, raspberry, milk chocolate, olive paste and aniseed. Here is a nice play of cool spice, savory characteristics and fruit set into plush tannins that gives way to a savory but bright finish. 93 Points - Wine Enthusiast.

Retail $42.99 Sale $36.99

Bodegas Vatan, Vatan Tempranillo, Toro, Spain, 2018

The 2018 Vatan shows a fresher, brighter style, with plenty of blue fruits, peppery herbs, graphite, and chalky minerality. Medium to full-bodied on the palate, it has good acidity, a focused, elegant mouthfeel, and outstanding length. It should impress for at least a decade. 93 Points - Wine Enthusiast.

Retail $42.99 Sale $37.99

Bodegas Brega, Brega Grenache, Calatayud, Spain, 2018

This ripe, incredibly sexy red boasts a deep purple/plum color to go with gorgeous notes of black cherries, chocolate, graphite, and a mineral/scrub brush-like character that develops with time in the glass. Concentrated, fresh, nicely structured, and long. This wine is unbelievable. Give it about 30 minutes to open up and then enjoy! 94 Points - Jeb Dunnuck.

Retail $39.99 Sale $35.99

Once and Future, Old Hill Ranch Zinfandel, Sonoma, CA, 2019

The 2019 Zinfandel Old Hill Ranch has a medium ruby-purple color and restrained aromas of mixed berry preserves, apricot and citrus peel with floral notes. The palate is soft, grainy, delicately styled and very pretty, with layers of spice, sweet fruit and flowers and a long, seamless finish. 302 cases were made. 93 Points - Wine Advocate. Retail $59.99 Sale $51.99

Ancient Peaks, Merlot, Santa Margarita Ranch, Paso Robles, CA, 2020

The 2020 Merlot opens with enticing red fruit aromas joined by hints of dried herbs and toasted oak. A round, supple texture delivers mouth filling flavors of raspberry, plum, black cherry, cocoa dust and baking spice. Lingering complexities of cedar and mushroom elevate the senses on a silky, polished finish. Retail $21.99 Sale $16.99

J. Bookwalter, Conflict, Columbia Valley, WA, 2018

This red blend is vibrant ruby with pink hues shining through. The aromatics resemble dried fruit, fresh thyme, mesquite, with a lifted and bright spirit. On the palate, there is juicy cherry, semi-sweet chocolate, sweet roasted red pepper, and savory currant. Hints of grilled stone fruit make an appearance in the background. This full-bodied wine has smooth and polished tannins with a lingering and elegant finish. Retail $59.99 Sale $51.99
